TRUE CLOUD CONSTRUCTION ACCOUNTING SOFTWARE

With today's complex construction business needs, it's essential to have a modern software solution that you can always rely on. Consider these benefits true cloud software provides:

Avoid paying for computer servers and hardware maintenance

Acumatica offers a true cloud option where you have the computing resources you need—and it's easy to get more when you need it.

Let us handle your software updates automatically

No need to spend your company's staff time making updates to the application software and operating system. These are handled quickly by trained IT professionals.

Secure your data

Full-time, highly experienced security professionals are guarding your data. Your data is backed up regularly, on a series of distributed servers, so that it will still be available in case of a disaster.

Connect to other construction solutions

Take advantage of cloud integrations with Procore, ProEst, Criterion construction payroll, DocuSign, AcumatiScan and other productivity software to efficiently run your business.

"We had been using a legacy construction accounting software package when we found Acumatica Construction Edition, and it is a perfect fit."
